WHY UNDERTAKE A VNR?

• CHANGES MINDSETS – transformative actions

• CATALYZER – meaningfully engaging all relevant stakeholders in SDG implementation through “Whole of Society” approach

• “WHOLE-OF-GOVERNMENT” APPROACH – obtaining buy-in from civil servants and creating incentives for integrated policy-making and service delivery

• STOCKTAKING – mapping existing policies and their compatibility with the SDGs, and identifying implementation gaps, data availability, establishing baselines and assessing capacity of national statistic systems for data collection and use

• COORDINATION – institutional arrangements made for VNRs have proved useful for SDG implementation and have made institutions stronger and embedded VNRs into institutions reporting to other mechanisms and conventions

• INTEGRATION – integration of SDGs into national development plans, aligning with budgets and identifying financial frameworks, integration of all three dimensions of sustainable development

• IMPLEMENTATION – chance to assess progress and strengthen M&E including through parliaments and supreme audit institutions

The definition of insanity is doing the same thing over and over again and expecting different results.

- RECOVERY FROM COVID – space to take stock of measures implemented for sustainable recovery and accelerated actions
- SUPPORT – tool for identifying and communicating the areas in which the country requires additional support for implementation
- PARTNERSHIPS – the VNR process can be a great opportunity to forge partnerships at all levels, including with other countries and actors
- ACCOUNTABILITY TOOL – provide accountability to its citizens
- COMMUNICATION TOOL of the agenda to citizens, civil society, academia, sub-national and local governments, private sector etc.
- FOLLOW-UP AFTER VNR - strengthen follow up by implementing lessons learned from other countries at HLPF and stimulate continuous national discussion
Main challenges faced in the preparation of the VNRs

- Timeframe in preparing the VNRs can be challenging, especially for meaningful stakeholder engagement and in current context also COVID-19 pandemic
- The role of innovation using online questionnaires to collect information in a short timeframe.
- SDG mainstreaming and established institutional framework lacking in some countries
- Need to strengthen the contributions of stakeholders
- Lack of baseline data and standardized and disaggregated data sources
- Coordinating inputs and collecting data from multiple sources
- Striking balance between quantitative and qualitative information – contextualizing data
- Strain on the institutional capacity to gather and analyze information
- Vital to have strong internal structures in place, especially in the refinement phase of the report
- Countries emerging from conflict underscored the difficulty to invest in all SDGs as the need to finance reconstruction and the requirements of transitional justice required to focus on a selection of goals
- Mobilizing resources and financing gap for the VNR process was deemed difficult
Impact of COVID-19 on 2020 VNR preparations

• Can adversely impact progress in implementation of SDGs and disrupt development efforts and progress achieved
• Need expressed for international assistance based on global solidarity especially for developing countries and least developed countries
• Need for a coordinated approach and cooperation by all stakeholders in the society
• Health and socioeconomic measures undertaken to combat the pandemic are described.
• Impact on preparation of VNRs especially consultations with stakeholders are described

QUOTES FROM COUNTRIES

• “The VNR process has allowed us to re-assess our development patterns, specifically the policy and institutional mechanisms since the 1990's, whether they are conducive to sustainable development and build stakeholder engagement around it.”

• “The usefulness of designing different instruments to collect information from different actors, according to their competences was extremely useful. Also, we found value in using different tools, such as web questionnaires and online polls to gather information quickly.”

• “The main benefits of attending VNR preparatory meetings was to learn from other countries on their experiences, it also helps us determine if we are on the right track and what pitfalls we can avoid.”

Engagement with local governments (capacity building, resources)

Coordinating mechanisms – whole-of-society approach
National level

- Strengthening national ownership including through capacity building and whole-of-government and whole-of-society approach and through preparing the VNRs by national team using international assistance when needed
- Linking the VNRs to reporting to other mechanisms and conventions
- Strengthening monitoring and oversight including through parliaments and supreme audit institutions, strengthening cooperation among all branches of government
- Explaining the impacts of strategies and polices on national level implementation of the 2030 Agenda
- Being honest in showing progress, but also gaps and challenges
- Identifying areas where support is needed
- Using VNRs as accountability tool
- Preparing a strategy how to maximize benefits of the VNR process for the implementation of the 2030 Agenda after VNR presentation at the HLPF
- 2nd and subsequent VNRs to build on previous ones and have a roadmap for VNR implementation until 2030
Global level

- Using SG voluntary common reporting guidelines to increase comparability, but also to improve overall quality of reports over time by learning from good practices and reflecting these by updating periodically the guidelines.

- Focusing VNR presentation at HLPF on explanation of impact of polices and strategies, lessons learned and peer learning that can be of benefit to all countries.

- Strengthening of interactive discussion including through providing more time for Q&A and getting recommendations.

- Strengthen the role of HLPF as a platform for peer learning and exchanging of experiences.

- Strengthen HLPF to serve as a broker and matchmaker for partnerships in the follow-up after the VNRs through looking at areas where countries need support.
